Terry Goddard to Recognize Target Employees For Their Help in the Fight Against Meth Production

(Phoenix, Ariz. - June 27, 2005) Attorney General Terry Goddard will present the Attorney General's Office Distinguished Service Award to six Target Corporation employees for their efforts to fight meth production in Arizona.

The employees being honored have worked with local police to identify suspects who may be purchasing pseudoephedrine in order to produce meth. Earlier this year Target Corp. decided to move pseudoephedrine-based medications behind pharmacy counters, a move soon followed by other retailers.

The awards will be presented in short ceremony at the Attorney General's Office on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m.

Target employees being recognized include:

- Jason Beckerman and Steve Schieman - Target Corporation Investigators
- David Offutt - Target Corporation Investigative Technician
- Sean Phillips, Sheila Hamm and Candice Brusacoram - Target Corporation Asset Protection Specialists

Event information:

Date: Tuesday – June 28, 2005

Time: 4 p.m.

Place: Attorney General's Office – 3rd Floor Conference Room
Capitol Center Office Building
15 S. 15th Avenue
